all. Where the theatre room could be bedroom 4, or closed off for use just when the grandkids come over.

The kitchen is nothing shy of a showstopper - with a freestanding Falcon oven, walk-in pantry, enormous kitchen island bench and more storage than even the most ambitious of chefs could ever need, it's hard to fault and presents a truly joyous place to prepare your daily meals and entertain around.

The master suite embraces the glorious outlook through cedar windows and is large enough for a king-sized bed or two singles. With ensuite and walk in robe, there isn't much more you could ask for, as a place to retire. Bedrooms 2 and 3 both have built in robes, and are of generous sizes.

Heating and cooling is easy with ducted air-conditioning and there's a freestanding wood fire to create that lovely ambient warmth.

Outside, there's an undercover entertaining area and when required a huge expanding awning is available at the press of a button, that retracts automatically should the weather become inclement.

22,000L of rainwater assists with garden irrigation and as an ingenious idea, there's a large workshop under main roof sited between the home and the oversized garage, ideal for hobbies of any pursuit or additional storage.

It's hard to talk more highly of this property. It must be seen to be truly appreciated. You won't be disappointed!
